How to Play

"Bottle Cap Bingo" is an "Event" game, played in conjunction with a bingo game. The game contains both instant winners and "hold" tickets. Instant winners consist of three matching symbols (Bottles, Bottle Cap Openers, and Gold Coins) in a row. Take a closer look at the payout side of the ticket; the bottle cap graphic is perforated.

Players pop the "cap" off and turn it over to find either a "Better Luck Next Time" lucky charm or a "Hold" cap "B" in Red, "I" in Blue, "N" in Green, "G" in Gold, or "O" in Purple. As depicted on the payout and flare, each "hold" letter has a set prize amount and appears a limited number of times in the game. In form #7481, for example, the "B-Hold" cap is worth $300, and there is one in the set; "I-Hold" at $150 with 2 winners; "N-Hold" at $100 with 3 winners; "G-Hold" at $75 with 4 winners; and "O-Hold" at $60 with 5 winners.

After all the tickets in the set have been sold out, the game operator announces the serial number for the "Granite Bottle Cap Bingo" game in play. When someone gets a bingo, the letter for the last number verified determines the "Granite Bottle Cap Bingo" winning "hold" letter. Accordingly, if the last number verified is B-12, the person holding "B-Hold" cap wins $300.
